

Yankee Steve's Almanac
for the Week of January 6, 2009

Justice means equality for equals, and inequality for unequals.

C. S. Lewis [novelist 1898-1963]

The demand for equality has two sources; one of them is among the noblest, the other is the basest of human emotions. The noble source is the desire for fair play. But the other source is the hatred of superiority.

C. S. Lewis

What is liberty without wisdom and without virtue? It is the greatest of all evils; for it is folly, vice, and madness, without restraint.

Edmund Burke [political theorist 1729-97]

Society cannot exist, unless a controlling power upon will and appetite be placed somewhere; and the less of it there is within, the more there must be without.

Edmund Burke

Y Generation Explained (from an e-mail)

We all know people born before 1946 are called the Silent Generation, folks born between 1946 and 1959 are called Baby Boomers, those born between 1960 and 1979 are called Generation X, and young people born between 1980 and 1995 are called Generation Y.

Do you know WHY we call the last one Generation Y?

The cartoon below displays the reason so eloquently . . .
