Letter of Protest to FOX Television

Dear Mr. Koch and Ms. Claspill:

On behalf of all decent people, Presbyterian or not, I am lodging a formal protest with the Fox affiliate KTVI which airs in the St. Louis region.

My protest is with a film that was shown on your station on Sunday, August 14, 2011, just before the dinner hour. I think I should tell you that I discovered the movie (Imagine Me & You, 2005, rated R) quite by accident while I was surfing the various stations which broadcast in this area. I found it disturbing to say the least; however, some of its content was sickening.

I thought I had been flung back to Europe where I attended college. Right before my widened eyes I saw two women engaging in sexual activities.

What if some child had witnessed this kind of perversion in his/her own living room?

This was not a discussion on the subject of homosexuality or a reference to it in passing. This film was produced in a culture differing from our own respectability, a culture where Sex is Rex and they take obscene pleasure in lewd behavior.

I am thinking out loud. Has your television station signed on to the homosexual agenda? If so, I will do my level best to influence the member churches of my denomination to engage in a boycott of Fox and its affiliates.

I would have expected this from NBC, but not FOX.

Do I need tell you that I am not alone in my objection? You should know that I am not a voice crying in the wilderness.

Sincerely disappointed,
Rev. Stephen A. Cakouros
Member, Evangelical Presbyterian Church
